

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD for negro boy SAM, or SAM MACKALL, who left home on Christmas day. Sam is a light copper color, about 20 years old, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, face smooth and rather full, rather bushy head of hair, a little bow-legged, and very likely, polite boy, a very fine house servant, though accustomed to plantation work. As he left home without any provocation, I have no doubt he intends to make his escape to some one of the non-slaveholding States, and will, very probably, pass through Washington or Baltimore. I will give $20 for him if he is caught in Prince George's county, and delivered to me, or committed to jail, and information given so that I get him again; and the above reward of $50 if he shall be caught out of the county, and committed to jail, or brought home as above. Sam has relations and acquaintances at Dr. Edward Eversfield's, near Piscataway; at Dr. Bird's, Owensville, Anne Arundel county, and in Washington, at Mr. John Gadsby's. In the neighborhood of some one of these places, he will, probably, conceal himself until he shall be able to make his escape.
