Men's and Boys' Clothing

TAking it for granted that the ready-made clothing has made great improvements in manufacture, you naturally expect from us to find something original and you also look for it to be not only praiseworthy, but essentially important. The principal feature about our clothing is the fit, stylish cut and the carefully tailored garment, that gives a man the appearance of wearing his clothes well, another very important point is the sewing; all our clothing is sewed with silk. The strength and neatness of silk sewing is immediately appreciated, as it not only makes the garment wear longer, but it gives them a much neater finish, enhances their value, elevates them above the inferiority of the ready-made apparel and places them in the workmanship class of the custom made.

THE BOND ELECTION.

LITTLE INTEREST MANIFESTED.

Women Vote For The First Time In Maryland.

Little interest was manifested today in the special election for bonding the city in $121,000, for permanent improvements and sinking fund. For the first time, women in Maryland were allowed to vote, but few however, exercised the franchise of taxpayers. Before 9 o'clock this morning one lady had presented herself at the polls, but not being a taxpayer, was denied the privilege of voting. A number of ladies voted for, and some against bonding the city, but not as many ladies presented themselves at the polls as were expected.

The privilege of taxpayers voting allowed women who paid taxes to vote. The first who offered to avail herself of this privilege was Miss Bessie Tate although an owner of property, the assessment of it was in the name of Miss Tate's father, and in his name the taxes had been paid; so Miss Tate was not allowed to vote. Nine other ladies offered to vote, up to three o'clock, and were accorded the privilege. They came in the following order—Mrs. Margaret D. Marchand, who voted against the bonds; Miss Adele Randall voted for the bonds; Mrs. Mary H. Casler against; Miss Virginia Thornton against; Miss Kate W. Randall for; Mrs. Ellen M. L. Ridout against; Miss Virginia J. Mullan for; Mrs. Hannah P. Randall for. Mrs. W. S. Welch, was also refused on the ground that her property had not been transferred in her name. The vote up to one o'clock was 316; of which there was, as indicated by the open ballot, about 250 majority for the bonds. These votes were chiefly cast by the taxpayers who favored the issue. There was no politics in the matter. Dr. Tuck supported the measure on the theory advanced by Mr. Mudd that unless Annapolis supported the local improvement it would make more difficult for him to secure the Naval Academy improvement appropriations. Less enthusiasm was shown at today's election than was anticipated, voters seeming indifferent to the question of bonding the city for improvements or not.

A report was current that Mr. Mudd had telegraphed officials here that the passage of the Bond question meant more improvements for the Naval Academy, and increased interest in Congress and its support in measures of interest to Annapolis. It is thought the vote for city bonds will result favorably and the result of the issue up to time of going to press looked auspicious.

No Additional Cadets.

Now that the Senate has knocked out the provision in the Naval Appropriation bill reducing the terms of naval cadets from six to four years and thus preventing the appointment of a number of additional cadets, it is expected that some of the bills to increase the number of cadets at the Naval Academy will be passed by Congress and some effort will be made to supply officers to the growing navy. There was some desultory talk of reporting a bill giving the President authority to appoint additional cadets in the House Committee on Naval Affairs, but nothing definite was decided upon. Although a larger number of vacancies exist in the lower grades of the navy than for years, the number of cadet appointments to the Naval Academy for the examinations, which are to be held on May 15, are smaller than usual, owing to the failure of members of Congress to make their nominations early.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by Feldmeyer Bros., City Drug Store.

This Morning's Fire.

A fire, which might have resulted disastrously, had it not been for the presence of mind of a gentleman visiting this city, originated this morning at the residence of Mr. William R. Shields, on Charles street. A colored woman emptied a vessel of gasoline into a pot of boiling water, and it instantly ignited, causing a large blaze. In attempting to put out the blaze with the hose, Mrs. Lynde, Mr. Shield's mother, caught on fire, and would have burned to death in all probability, had it not been for the presence of mind of Mr. George Adams, of Orangeville, N. J., who threw Mrs. Lynde on the grass, rolling her in his coat, thus extinguishing the flames. Others witnessing the accident took flight. Mr. Adams' presence of mind doubtless saved Mrs. Lynde's life. The fire companies responded to the alarm, but their services were not needed.

Reduced Rates To Washington.

For the Imperial Council, Order of the Mystic Shrine, at Washington, D. C., May 22-24, the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell tickets to the general public, from all stations on its line, to Washington and return, at rate of one fare for the round trip. Tickets to be sold and good going May 19-21, returning to May 28, inclusive. adv. 31*

Signs of The Times.

There is no truer sign of the approach of summer than that of swimming in the creeks and rivers. Yesterday's heat brought out the swimmers in full force, and the banks of the Spa, College creek, and Severn river were lined with those enjoying a plunge in the cool waters and a swim to their heart's content.

CHURCH MUSIC.

Members of The Opera Company Assist in Singing.

Music in some of the churches yesterday was greatly assisted by several members of the Herald Square Opera Company, now playing in this city. At St. Anne's Church during the offertory at the morning service, Miss Stetson sang in her sweet, melodious voice, and at the evening service at St. Mary's Church, Miss Mae Glover sang an Ave Maria.

Miss Glover's rich voice rang out sweet and clear, and filled the beautiful St. Mary's Church with sweet melody. After the singing, and the last notes of Miss Glover's beautiful voice had died away, a deep hush settled over the congregation, which bespoke the power of human voice, in sacred song, over the heart of man. Miss Glover has indeed a rare voice, capable of expressing wonderful feeling, and she is perfect mistress of its range and modulation.

At the St. Mary's Church yesterday where thirty-seven children who received their first Holy Communion, and in the evening renewed their baptismal vows, the following musical programme was rendered, under the leadership of Prof. Charles A. Zimmerman, bandmaster at the Naval Academy: Morning Service—Solemn High Mass, with organ and orchestra accompaniment; Vidi Aquam; Haydn; Kyrie; Protheus; Gloria; Protheus; Veni Creator, (bass solo) Bassini; Credo; Protheus; Regina Coeli, with bell accompaniment, Lambillotte; Sanctus; Protheus; Benedictus. The children then received their first Holy Communion, during which a violin duet with organ "Come to me Jesus" was played by Messrs. Schreyer and Cutty. Agnes Dei, Evening Service—Regina Coeli, Lambillotte; renewal of baptismal vows of the children; benediction; O Salutaris, Rossini; Ave Maria, Bassini, sung by Miss Mae Glover, of the Herald Square Opera Company; Tantum Ergo, (full chorus) Rossini. After service there was congregational singing of the hymn, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

BOTH CREWS WIN.

BOAT RACE HONORS DIVIDED.

Pennsylvania And Middies Contest on The Severn.

The Navy lost the first race on Saturday with Pennsylvania. The Navy was disappointed at not winning the race, but there was much consolation in the fact that, while last year it was five lengths that the Navy was beaten and over 300 feet, this year it was but 25 feet and only one and one-quarter lengths.

The race between the second Academy crew and the freshmen of Pennsylvania followed immediately afterward. The Pennsylvanians were nearer the stern this time, and, like the Navy in the first race, heard the word "go" first and took the water first. They jumped into their work at 35 strokes to the minute, and just ran away from the sailors—indeed, it looked as if the Navy had no part in the business for the first quarter-mile.

The blood of both crews was young and hot, and far no part of the race did the two crews let down their high and strength-destroying stroke. The Navy, however, had the right theory, and let their opponents pump themselves, and at the half-mile crawled up on them, and then for the mile that was left it was a beautiful race. Neck and neck the shells kept. One instant the Navy would have ahead, and then the visitors would come to the front. The Navy, however, took the lead for sure on the last quarter.

As the two shells closed in to the finish the rosters of both called on their favorites to win, and amid a deafening roar of voices and screeching whistles, the Navy crossed the line one second and a fifth ahead. Time, first crew, (Navy) 10 minutes 41 2/5 seconds; Pennsylvania, 10 minutes 35 4/5 seconds. Incident, two miles straightaway. Freshmen and second crew, Navy, 8 minutes and 11 seconds; Pennsylvania, 8 minutes 13 1/2 seconds. Distance, one mile and a half, straightaway. The result of the two races has given great satisfaction to the Navy. It won one and lessened the ratio of defeat in the other.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Boats The Record.

Yesterday's temperature was 95° in the shade—the highest this season. Every body on the street wore the lightest and thinnest of summer clothing. Shutters on most of the houses were closed, a sure indication of warm weather. The heat was rendered less oppressive by the absence of humidity in the atmosphere and the presence of a breeze of twelve miles an hour. The torrid wave is due apparently to an area of low barometer around the Great Lakes and the Northern Central States. There is an area of high barometer off the Florida coast. The area of low barometer is dry and the indications for today are for fair and continued warm weather. Straw hats and full summer garb were the order for today.

Fra Diavolo.

The Herald Square Opera Company that has given three successful performances here, has been induced to remain over tonight, owing to not having given any matinee performance at the Opera House Saturday, and will produce "Fra Diavolo," one of their best operas, this evening. Those who have seen "Fra Diavolo" know what a beautiful opera it is, and that it bears repetition, especially at the hands of the Herald Square Company, a strong opera company of good voices and excellent chorus. Manager Sims especially commends tonight's performance. Let him have a good house.

Academy Y. M. C. A.

Yesterday afternoon the Naval Academy Y. M. C. A. meeting was led by Cadet Robert Henderson. The subject discussed was "Religion in the Navy." The association adopted a memorial asking the authorities to provide in the new cadet quarters a hall for the association that could also be used by the cadets for class meetings and other purposes.
