That sometime in ye Summer a yeare ago, Jn°. Mellham killed ye Lady Throgh 2 2 yeare old steere & upwards in Mr. Bradnox ffort at Kent. And ye all this ye Lyers in ye house helpe to drive ye steere into ye ffort. And ye ye steere was knocked on the head with an axe. And Jn°. Mellham & Jn°. Palmer flead ye Beast. And Mr. Bradnox layd not his hands thats, nor to ye cutting up of ye same, as hee remembers. And that this Dept was sett at Centinelle, whilye they were doing. And affore as it was flead, the eares was cutt off, & barged. But he remembreth not, whither Mr. Bradnox, or some other, in ye house commanded ye eares to bee cutt off. And ye Mr. Bradnox & his wife alle, bid this Dept not to tell thereof. And ye it was all eate in hugger mugger.
And ye when ye Gouł & Mr. Brent were at Kent Mr. Bradnox bid him, in his owne house not to tell thereof.
And ye Jury goeing againe to consider of it, Returned their Verdict. Ignoramy.

Edward Cumins complayneth agst Thomas Brooke, for ye ye Brooke att a Court held att Henry Morgans house in ye Isle of Kent 22° Junij recovered iudgt agst the Compt upon an acct for 2041 Tob & cask. wch hee waived upon oath to bee due.
But since ye time, ye Compt is able to make proofe, ye Brooke hath taken a false & rash oath, in part of ye Accot. And hath alsoe imployed much time & labour, much to his hinderance & dammage, to ye value of 6000 Tob & cask. And desyreth to bee releived therein agst ye Brooke by order from this Court.
