

$50 REWARD.—Ran away, on the 26th of July, from my plantation in Prince George's county, Md., a NEGRO WOMAN, named MILLY TYLER. She is of a copper color, 18 years of age, rather a pleasant countenance, stout and well made, has a short quick walk, and stammers very much when she speaks. Her father is a free man, and she has free relatives in Washington City. I will give $25 if she is taken in Prince George's county, and $50 if she is apprehended elsewhere. In either case she must be delivered to my Manager, Mr. Calvert Brown, or secured in jail so that I get her again. Direct letters to the subscriber, at "Hampstead," King George county, Va.
