July 9th 1814
aftr. orders

Countersigned -- Hamilton

Detail for guard
1 Capt., 1 sub., 3 serjeants, 30 privates
1 Comd. officer, 1 serjeant, 8 private artillery

As it is probable a small portion of the militia only ordered in from the country will arrive here time enough to do duty it will be necessary the whole of the city militia shall be prepared to turn out at a moments warning, they shall remain with their cloaths and accouterments on, their muskets charged, and so placed that they can lay their hands upon them in a moment.

A gun from within fort or State House hill or two properties from Horn Point will be the signal of alarm, on which having fired, the artillery company will repair to the guns in the battery and Rutlands wharf.

Capt. Slicers company in the rear of the market house, his right near Capt. Sands store. Capt. Chase company in front of the State House
